October

Tuesday 3 October - Saturday 7 October

Art trip til Oslo

In 2023 we are planning an art trip to Oslo. In recent years, Oslo has seen a number of new art institutions and museums in architecturally spectacular buildings. First the opera, later the Astrup Fearnly Museum (which is one of the foremost museums of contemporary art in the Nordic countries) and most recently a new Munch Museum and a new National Museum. We'll see all that, but we'll also try to make a programme of visits to places you don't normally go.

November

Sunday 5 November, 1.30pm - 3.30pm

The Hirschsprung Collection

In autumn 2023, the Hirschsprung Collection will focus on the artist Marie Triepcke Krøyer Alfvén (1867-1940) in a major exhibition of her visual art, interior design and design. The exhibition uncovers new aspects of Marie Krøyer, the networks she moved in and the sources from which she drew inspiration. We will have a guided tour of the exhibition.
